Non-Stop International Education Carnival of Sparkling Ideas

15+

Global-recognized Leaders and Figures Sharing Cutting-edge Insights & Visionary Ideas on Current and Future Trends

As the most important event of CACIE, the CACIE Plenary Session brings together the most influential officials and professionals from government authorities, non-governmental organizations, educational institutes and enterprises from over 60 countries and regions to shed light on the latest progress in international education, share insights and visions and build consensus on promoting the future development of education.

With years of efforts of CEAE, CACIE has been the largest international education event in China and even Asia-Pacific. For over 20 years, focusing on education and opening up, CACIE explores in-depth discussions on promoting education exchange and cooperation and builds a global platform of enhancing understanding, building consensus and supporting future development of education.

HUI JINPENG
Minister of Education, China

2022 marked the 50th anniversary of German-Chinese diplomatic relations. The strong ties that we have successfully established over the years can certainly be linked to our fruitful collaboration in the fields of education and science. With the optimistic outlook, I hope that this conference will spark many new ideas and partnerships.
